There are few variants on how you can reach Lille by plane:

- To Brussels airport and then by train to Lille;
- To a Paris airport and then by train to Lille;
- Directly to Lille airport.

▪ By train:

There is a very good connection with most European cities by TGV or Eurostar. Both stations (“Lille Flandres” and “Lille Europe”) are located in the town centre and have connections with Paris, Brussels and London.

- Paris - Lille: 1 hour,
- Brussels - Lille: 30 minutes,
- London - Lille: less than 2 hours.

There are also direct links by TGV to the Mediterranean and Brittany. The Nord Pas de Calais region also has a dense regional express train network.
